What our Song Books Say about the Resurrection:

Dale Parsley

“I believe in the one they called Jesus...I believe He died on Mount Calvary; and I believe that the tomb was found empty...” (p. 267) “Sometimes it causes me to tremble...Were you there when they laid Him in the tomb. Were you there when He rose up from the dead?” (p. 734) Even though “We saw thee not when lifted high, amid that wild and savage crew; nor heard we that imploring cry, ‘Forgive they know not what they do!’ Nor did “we gazed not in the open tomb, where once thy mangled body lay; nor saw thee in that upper room, nor met thee on the open way...But we believe, the deed was done, That shook the earth and veiled the sun...But we believe that angels said, ‘Why seek the living with the dead?’” (p. 726)

The fact is death “could not keep its prey, Jesus My Savior! He tore the bars away...Up from the grave he arose, with a mighty triumph o’er his foes; He arose a victor from the dark domain, and he lives for with his saints to reign.” (p. 408) Yes we “serve as risen Savior, He’s in the world today, I know that He is living whatever men may say; I see His hand of mercy, I hear His voice of cheer, and just the time I need Him, He’s always near. He lives... Christ Jesus lives today! He walks with me and talks with me along life’s narrow way. He lives...salvation to impart! You ask me how I Know He lives: He lives within my heart!” (p. 221)

It’s because He “lives I can face tomorrow. Because He lives all fear is gone; because I know He holds the future, and life is worth the living Jesus because He lives.” (p. 408)

But He was wounded for our transgressions,

He was bruised for our iniquities;

The chastisement for our peace was upon

Him,

And by His stripes we are healed.
