Dewey Avenue Church of Christ

April 16, 2023

701 Dewey Avenue St. Marys, WV (304) 684-3939

Schedule of ServicesHis Personal InvitationSundayby Dan JenkinsSun Bible Class: 9:00 AMHow often have you heard these words of Jesus in Bible classes and sermons? "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28). They touch our hearts, but they may become even more powerful when we look at the words preceding His invitation.Sun PM Worship: 5:00 PMBefore giving His invitation, He spoke to the Father. "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent." The things He men- tioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described as wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- cicety as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership: Elders: Dave Lancaster Hal PowellJesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could come in the thereexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wilks to reveal Him?" (Matt. 11:22). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to 'babes' who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to <br< th=""></br<>
Sundayby Dan JenkinsSun Bible Class: 9:00 AMHow often have you heard these words of Jesus in Bible classes and sermons? "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28). They touch our hearts, but they may become even more powerful when we look at the words preceding His invitation.Sun AM Worship: 5:00 PMBefore giving His invitation, He spoke to the Father. "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent." The things He men- tioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described a wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- city as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership: Elders: Dave Lancaster Hal PowellJesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- ent from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, theth and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Dave Parks Hal Powell Melvin Truax Lew WilsonJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah describ
Sunday Sun Bible Class: 9:00 AMHow often have you heard these words of Jesus in Bible classes and sermons? "Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest" (Matt. 11:28). They touch our hearts, but they may become even more powerful when we look at the words preceding His invitation.Sun AM Worship: 10:00 AMBefore giving His invitation, He spoke to the Father. "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent." The things He men- tioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described as wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- ciety as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful?Leadership: Elders: Dave Lancaster Hal PowellJesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- ent from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. 11:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Hal Powell Melvin Truax Lew WilsonJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes
Sun Bible Class: 9:00 AMSun AM Worship: 10:00 AMSun AM Worship: 10:00 AMSun PM Worship: 5:00 PMSun PM Worship: 5:00 PMDave Lancaster Dave Lancaster Hal PowellLeadership: Elders: Dave Parks Hal PowellLeadership: Dave Lancaster Dave Parks Hal PowellMelvin Truax Lew WilsonLew Wilson Deacons:Dave Elrod Brian MercerMelvin Truax Lew WilsonDet Elrod Brian MercerBrian MercerSun PM Worship: Sun PM Worship: Su
Sun AM Worship: 10:00 AMhearts, but they may become even more powerful when we look at the words preceding His invitation.Sun PM Worship: 5:00 PMBefore giving His invitation, He spoke to the Father. "I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent." The things He men- tioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described as wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- ciety as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership: Elders: Dave LancasterJesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- ent from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 cor. 1:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Melvin Truax Lew WilsonJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from th
5:00 PMBefore giving his invitation, he spoke to the Patter.I thank You, Patter, Yord of neaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from the wise and prudent. "The things He men- tioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described as wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- ciety as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership:Jesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- ent from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. 1:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Dave Parks Hal PowellJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelati
Wednesdaytioned were the eternal truths He came to reveal. They were hidden from those described as wise and prudent. The wise and the prudent would be the ones you might expect to be given such vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by so- ciety as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership:Jesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obvi- ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so differ- ent from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. 1:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Melvin Truax Lew Wilson Deacons:Jesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the C
7:00 PMsuch vital truths, yet Jesus thanked God that it had not been given to those respected by society as being above all others. It may at first seem strange, but if Jesus was thankful for this, shouldn't we also be thankful?Leadership:Jesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obviously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so different from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 cor. 1:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Melvin Truax Lew WilsonJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fatherexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him " (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Savier and know Himl Elders:Jesus continued His thought when He said the Father had "revealed them to babes." Obviously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so different from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. Dave ParksIntervent that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. Hal PowellIntervent that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. Melvin TruaxLew WilsonDeacons:Jesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fatherexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe ElrodWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Elders:ously, the babes are not infants, but those individuals to whom it was revealed were so different from the wise and prudent. Paul describes this truth in this way. "For you see your calling, brethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. Dave ParksInterewas no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Hal PowellJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fatherexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Dave Lancaster Dave Parksbrethren, that not many wise according to the flesh, not many noble, are called" (1 Cor. 1:26). There was no way to comprehend those prophecies about how God would come in the flesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Hal Powell Melvin Truax Lew Wilson Deacons:Jesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Savior and know Him!
Dave Parks Hal Powellflesh and the Creator of the universe would suffer crucifixion. When He actually came there was no human wisdom, even among the wise and prudent, that could comprehend it.Hal PowellJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Savior and know Hem He Hal Powell Melvin TruaxJesus said even more about this before giving His great invitation. "No one knows the Fa- therexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Melvin Truaxtherexcept the Son, and the one to whom the Son wills to reveal Him" (Matt. 11:27). To whom does Jesus reveal the Father? He has been revealed Him to "babes" who by human standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Lew Wilson Deacons:standards are so far removed from being wise and prudent. Jeremiah described those who would be the recipients of the New Covenant. "For they shall all know Me, from the least to the greatest" (Jer. 31:34).Joe Elrod Brian MercerWe must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is that revelation from God that enables us to so easily understand the crucified Creator! That which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Joe Elrod Brian Mercer We must never forget that as we respond to His great invitation we come to know God. It is which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Brian Mercer Brian
Brian Mercer which the world by its wisdom will never comprehend is the very basis of how we come to the Darren Parks Savior and know Him!
Clay Perkins Christendom often asks, "Do you know the Lord as your personal Savior." Is there any way
Minister: we can know that we really know God? Here is God's answer to that question. "By this we know that we know Him, if we keep His commandments" (1 John 2:4). Coming to Him in-
Dale Parsley volves knowing His will and doing what He says. "Babes" fully understand this.
Youth Minister: Source: churchofchristarticles.com
Carlos Molina Radio and TV Programs
Good News of Peace: Sundays: 8:00 AM on WRRR 93.9 FM
Gospel Broadcasting Network: Dish Network Channel: 9407 (noon); Direct TV Channel: 376 (7:30 AM)
In Search of the Lord's Way: 7:30—Channel 4, Parkersburg; 7:30—Channel 15, Parkersburg; 8:00— Channel 7, Wheeling; 11:30—Channel 5, Clarksburg

Worship Schedule

Apr— Clay Perkins May— Richard Lee Davis

April 16

Morning Worship:

Announce/Pray: Clay Perkins Song Leader: Darren Parks Usher/Monitor: Jesse Barnhart Usher/Monitor: Melvin Truax Communion: Dave Lancaster Closing Prayer: Larry Butcher Evening Worship: Announce/Prayer: Clay Perkins Song Leader: Darren Parks Communion: Dave Lancaster Closing Prayer: Larry Butcher Wednesday April 19 Announce/Prayer: Clay Perkins Song Leader: Darren Parks Closing Prayer: Don Collins

April 23

Morning Worship:

Announce/Pray: Dave Parks Song Leader: Connor Lancaster Usher/Monitor: Richard Lee Davis Usher/Monitor: Elmer Burns Communion: Brian Mercer Closing Prayer: Lew Wilson Evening Worship: Announce/Prayer: Dave Parks Song Leader: Connor Lancaster Closing Prayer: Lew Wilson Wednesday April 26 Announce/Prayer: Dave Parks Song Leader: Connor Lancaster Closing Prayer: Noah Mote

Upcoming Events

Senior Saints Day will be April 30th in the fellowship room after AM service. Sign-up sheet is on the table under the Lads to Leaders.

News

The elders have decided to send $5,000 to Churches of Christ Disaster Relief to help with the recent weather disasters

YOUTH EVENTS

*Check out the new Dewey Ave Youth Group Facebook page@ https://www.facebook.com/ groups/142546485320

*Lads to Leaders classes will be held on Sundays from 3:30-5pm. Practice will be every Sunday 3:30-5pm except for May 14th.

*Lads to Leaders Class Schedule

April 16– Puppets, Mass Communication

April 23– Puppets, Song Leading

April 30– Good Samaritan (senior dinner) puppets– perform for senior dinner

May 7– Teach to Teach, Good Samaritan (flower beds) , puppets

May 21– Speech, Song Leading, Puppets

May 26– L2L conference

PRAYER LIST:

*Bill and Lorraine Dutton are at home and doing much better.

*Larry Barnhart has been diagnosed with stage 4 cancer and decided against treatments. His address is in the foyer.

*Jane Ann Becker got news following her recent chemo treatment.

*Tom Becker got good news on his heart check-up.

*John Rockhold is in Emcompass for rehabilitation following a stay in the hospital.

Don Archer, Colleen Kiester Family, Gala Stewart, Ruth Eddy, Fay Williams, Betty Timmons, Jay Mote, Baby Lancaster, Zack Lamp, Jane Ann Becker, Tom Becker, Tina Keith, Larry Truax, Lorraine Dutton, Gerald & Jan Burns, Rodney Ramsey, Betty Wilson, Gail Mote, Sandy Mote, John Rockhold, Evelyn Hall, Cecil Cline, Madeline McFadden, Diane Shingler, Lisa Westbrook Smith, and Carolyn Rule.

If you or someone you know would like to receive the bulletin via email, send request to: office@deweyavechurchofchrist.org

Any updates for the bulletin, please contact: Terri Parks (304) 299-1650 or terrinazerod@hotmail.com

Visit us at www.deweyavenuechurchofchrist.org & www.facebook.com/deweyavenue